9 Gregory Stamper,

10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 Freebird Logistics Inc., et. al.,

13 Defendants.
14

No. CV-22-155-PHX-MTL

ORDER

15 The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of Civil Procedure
16 apply to all proceedings in this case. Pursuant to Rule 4(m) of the Federal Rules of Civil 17 Procedure, you must serve each Defendant in your case with the Summons and 18 Complaint within 90 days from the date the Complaint is filed, unless you obtain a
19 waiver of service pursuant to the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d). If, for good
20 reason, you cannot serve your Summons and Complaint on a Defendant within 90 days,
21 you may, prior to the expiration of the 90-day period, file with the Court a request for an
22 extension of time in which to serve your Summons and Complaint. In that motion, you 23 should set forth the reason why you have not accomplished service and request a specific 24 short period of time in which to accomplish such service on any Defendant. If the Court 25 believes your reason constitutes "good cause" it will authorize a brief additional period in 26 which you can serve the Defendant.

27 If any Defendant named in your Complaint is not served within 90 days, the Court
28 is obliged, after notice to you, to dismiss the Complaint without prejudice.

1 The only way that the Court knows that you have served the Defendant is that the
2 person who serves the Defendant with the Summons and Complaint is required,
3 according to the Rules, to file an affidavit with the Court which proves that the Defendant
4 was served in compliance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(l). Therefore, you need to be sure that,
5 prior to 90 days from the date on which you filed your Complaint, whoever serves the 6 Summons and Complaint on each Defendant files an affidavit with this Court
7 demonstrating that they accomplished proper service.

8 THIS CONSTITUTES YOUR NOTICE UNDER RULE 4(m) THAT IF YOU
9 HAVE NOT APPROPRIATELY SERVED ANY DEFENDANT WITHIN 90 DAYS
10 FROM THE FILING OF YOUR COMPLAINT, THAT DEFENDANT WILL BE 11 DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE FROM YOUR LAWSUIT.

12 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED directing the Clerk of Court to terminate any or all 13 Defendants in this matter, without further notice, that have not been served within the 14 time required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) on April 29, 2022.

15 Dated this 1st day of February, 2022.
